

INTRODUCTION TO DH:DESIGN

Thank you for your project enquiry.

You are receiving this introductory letter as you have expressed interest in using the services of a Professional Building Designer / draftsman for a residential alteration / addition project.

DH:DESIGN

Dh:Design is a multi-disciplined building design studio located in Melbourne, with over 15 years' industry experience in building design and documentation across architectural and interior projects we pride ourselves on providing a professional and personalised design / documentation service catering to individual client's project requirements, budget considerations and life style needs, we value add to your project outcome.

Project outcomes are derived from understanding the functional brief and assessment of the brief against existing constraints / site topology and local government requirements, the outcome is a building that has a sense of place within its local environment.
